

MINT wins Goblet for best film festival bash

THE 16th Shanghai International Film Festival closing party was kicked off at MINT on June 23. Hundreds of world-renowned directors, actors and actresses attended the gala. They included director Tom Hooper, winner of the Oscar for Best Director for "The King's Speech" and president of the jury for the 16th SIFF, as well as Nick Cheung, winner of the 16th SIFF Golden Goblet for Best Actor in "Unbeatable." The youngest luminary in attendance was 10-year-old Malaysian child star Crystal Li, youngest ever winner of the Golden Goblet for Best Actress for her role in "Unbeatable." They were joined by other cast and crew. Many local and international celebrities attended.

◀ Nick Cheung, winner of the 16th SIFF Golden Goblet for Best Actor in "Unbeatable," and Best Actress winner Crystal Li pose with the film's director Dante Lam, producer Yu Dong and supervisor Candy Leung.

▼ Yu Nan, Chinese actress and a judge of 16th SIFF, Liang Jing, winner of Taipei Golden Horse for Best Supporting Actress, with Tom Hooper, winner of the Oscar for Best Director for "The King's Speech" and president of the jury for the 16th SIFF.

▲ Zafer Baykal (left), an actor in "Taste of Poetry," poses with Tom Hooper.

▲ Picture shows Yu Nan, Nick Cheung and Ning Hao, Chinese director and a judge of 16th SIFF.

MINT®
WORLD'S FIRST SHAREHOLDERS CLUB